There was a big sensation this morn ing when it became known that during the night eight "pet" dogs, belonging to P. Senn, a New York fancier, had been poisoned at the Madison Square Garden. Strychnine was used and all were dead before 10 o'clock this morning. Revenge is supposed to have been the motive.

The dogs poisoned were: King of Charles and Lady De Lena, King Charles spaniele: Brandy, a Yorkshire terrier: Belle, a Prince Charles spaniel: Mikado, Yoki, Ki Ku and Chin, Japan-

Beside this, it is fair to say that at DENVER Col. Feb. 22 Senators George Pease, of Park County, and David A. Mills of Eagle County, both Populists, came to blows during the session of the Senate to-day.
Mills struck Pease on the head with a paperweight, inflicting serious injury.
